Covéa has finalised the sale of Medical Insurance Company DAC (MIC)

Covéa has finalised the sale to Compre group of its subsidiary Medical Insurance Company DAC (MIC), an Irish company providing insurance covering professional medical malpractice risks. MIC entered into run-off in 2015.

This sale is a new step in the rollout of Covéa's strategy of refocusing its international operations and making reinsurance the main priority in developing its business outside France.
